A woman with glasses and a light-colored top is standing behind a wooden podium on a red-carpeted stage. She is looking at a Toshiba laptop on the podium. A glass of water is also on the podium. The podium has a silver base and a wooden top section with a stack of papers.

A wooden desk is positioned to the right of the podium. It has a microphone, a water bottle, and some papers on it. There are two green chairs behind the desk.

ΠΑΝΕΠΙΣΤΗΜΙΟ ΙΩΑΝΝΙΝΩΝ

- Every day, we are confronted with different moral situations where we have to make a moral decision. The outcome of our decision does not only affect our own welfare; its consequences have a far-reaching effect on other people and in the community or the society in general. The kind of society we have today is determined by our individual choices.

developed industries disrupt the original social order, leading to the overthrow of causal chains and the reversal of substance/conscious relationship. In turn, the conventionally impolitic elements assume politic roles and the political reconstruction becomes a focal point of scholarly and theoretical contention. However, conducting political reconstruction is not
